

January 11, 1950
The Military Commission Agrees to Allow the 4th Field
Army's Ethnic Korean Officers and Soldiers Repatriate to Korea

Citation:

"The Military Commission Agrees to Allow the 4th Field Army's Ethnic Korean Officers and Soldiers Repatriate to Korea," January 11, 1950, History and Public Policy Program Digital Archive, Zhonggong zhongyang wenxian yanjiu shi and Zhongyang dang'anguan, eds., Jianguo yilai Liu Shaoqi Wengao (Liu Shaoqi's Manuscripts since the Founding of the PRC), vol. 1 (Beijing: Zhongyang wenxian chubanshe, 2005), 319-320. Translated by Kim Donggil.
<http://digitalarchive.wilsoncenter.org/document/116735>

Summary:

China asked three representatives from DPRK to prepare to receive the ethnic Korean troops.

Original Language:

Chinese

Contents:

- English Translation

Passed on from Wen [Shizhen] to Comrade Kim Il Sung:

Agree with your decision to send three representatives to China to prepare to receive the Korean troops. These three representatives should please come to the Chinese People's Revolutionary Military Affairs Committee in Beijing to make arrangements with Chief of Staff Nie Rongzhen.

Agree with Korean troops being reorganized in China and with starting to send troops back to Korea in April after changing to summer uniforms.

CCP Central Committee

January 11 [1950]