

The achievements of the Geneva Conference are significant. It is another great victory for the forces of peace throughout the world over the forces of war. This victory fully reflects the remarkable characteristics of the current development of the world situation, and the relationship between the forces of peace and the forces of war is undergoing tremendous changes.

Before the Geneva Conference, thanks to the unremitting efforts of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea and the People's Republic of China, and the resolute support of the Soviet Union and the world's peace-loving forces, a truce was achieved in North Korea, opening the way for a negotiated settlement of international disputes. The meeting of foreign ministers of the four countries held in Berlin resumed the meeting of the four major powers that had been interrupted by the implementers of the "Cold War" policy for several years. Under the initiative and efforts of the Soviet Union, they agreed to further convene Geneva with the participation of all major powers including the People's Republic of China. Meeting to resolve the two major disputes in Asia peacefully. In the course of the Geneva meeting, thanks to the efforts of the delegations of the Soviet Union, the People's Republic of China and the Democratic Republic of Vietnam, the French delegation's sincerity in resolving the Indochina issue peacefully, and the attitude of consultation, and also the efforts of the British delegation. Through active consultations, the delegations of various countries that wished for peace finally reached an agreement, enabling the signing of an agreement on the Indochina issue. This will pave the way for the peaceful settlement of other unresolved international issues, and it will push the world situation forward in a direction conducive to peace. This major development of the International Consultative Movement is the result of the growth and development of the forces of the peace and democracy camp headed by the Soviet Union, and the development of the fundamental changes in the Asian situation caused by the founding of the People's Republic of China.

Now, the whole world is happy. In Asia, in Europe, in Australia, in many parts of the world, people happily welcomed the cessation of the war in Indochina. People have higher and higher hopes, hoping that world peace and security can be guaranteed and their own peaceful and peaceful life can be maintained. However, there is a dark corner in the world, where the militant groups in the United States are not happy at all. They expressed their hatred for the truce in Indochina. They are still trying their best to intimidate the people and pursue war. This shows that all peace-loving people must not be paralyzed by this great victory. On the contrary, we must also see that there are still evil forces pursuing war on the road to peace. In order to achieve and consolidate peace, we must also wage an arduous struggle.

The entire process of the Geneva Conference thoroughly exposed the fact that US imperialism, in spite of its disgrace and becoming increasingly isolated, did its utmost to resist negotiation, pursue war, and exacerbate international tensions. All peace-loving people should also maintain a high degree of vigilance and continue to watch the conspiracies of war instigators and defeat them.

People clearly see that the peaceful settlement of the North Korean issue has not been completed due to the obstruction of the United States. At the Geneva meeting, the US delegation insisted on using the so-called "United Nations supervision of elections" to achieve the arrogant purpose of the Rhee Seungman clique to rule all of North Korea, and rejected all the rationale for restoring North Korea's reunification and consolidating peace in North Korea proposed by North Korea, China and the Soviet Union. The proposal, and even the proposal to resume the discussion of the North Korean issue in the future, is also opposed, in an attempt to block the path to a peaceful settlement of the North Korean issue, maintain an unstable state of armistice in North Korea and renew the disaster of war. The people of North Korea and China and the public of the world cannot allow the US conspiracy to succeed. The North Korean issue has definitely not been erased from the agenda. The countries concerned should continue to find ways to resume the interrupted talks.

The realization of the armistice in Indochina is only the first step in the peaceful settlement of the Indochina issue. The US government blatantly refused to sign the final declaration of the Geneva Conference. On the one hand, Eisenhower and Dulles promised that the United States would not use war and threats of war to undermine the armistice agreement, but on the other hand they said that the United States was "not subject to this decision," and expressed that they would accelerate the establishment of a Southeast Asian aggression group aimed at pursuing war. The Indian regime also "protested the way in which the armistice was concluded" and declared that "it reserves complete freedom of action." This is obviously linked to the conspiracy of the United States. Therefore, striving for the thorough implementation of the Geneva Conference agreement and ensuring lasting peace in Indochina has become a serious task for the countries and peace-loving people.

Since the failure of the war of aggression against Korea, the U.S. ruling group has continued to step up its arms expansion and war preparation plans throughout the world, in an attempt to create international tensions, maximize profits for the U.S. monopoly capitalists, and pass on the blow of the growing economic crisis to others. Pass it on to the vassal states and capitalist countries of the United States, and use the method of launching war to escape the economic crisis. The results of the Geneva Conference have now proved that the aggressive and war policy of the US ruling group that is hostile to peace and dominance can and must be defeated. However, this does not mean that the US aggression plan has been forced to stop.

None of the recent actions of the American ruling group is not aimed at undermining the peace. US Secretary of Defense Wilson traveled to the Far East and Southeast Asia, and the commander-in-chief of the US Army in the Far East, Hull, also arranged a military conference in Southeast Asia. Recently, the United States is actively organizing aggression groups in Southeast Asia, and stepping up its re-arming of Japan, expanding the Rhee Chengman's puppet army, and attempting to use Asians to beat Asians and undermine peace and security in Asia. At the same time, US Army Deputy Chief of Staff Trudeau visited countries in the Near East and the Middle East to oppress Iran to join the aggressive groups of Turkey, Iraq, and Pakistan, and to put it against other Arab countries.

The Chinese people will never forget that the American imperialists are still occupying our territory, Taiwan. The American imperialists have detained more than 14,000 People's Volunteers' prisoners of war and handed them over to the Chiang Kai-shek fascist gang. Many overseas Chinese in the United States have been detained to prevent them from returning to China to reunite with their families.

In order to subvert the People's Republic of China, the United States is clamoring for the conclusion of a "bilateral security treaty" between the United States and Chiang Kai-shek in an attempt to seize Taiwan, the territory of my country for a long time, and strengthen its war activities against the 60 million people of our country. U.S. President Eisenhower on July 20

One day, the day when the signing of the Indochina peace agreement was resumed, it publicly announced that the United States "has been studying the possibility of a treaty with Taiwan for a long time." This shows how stubborn and dangerous the American conspiracy is. For the same purpose of hostility and aggression against China, the United States has also planned to piece together the so-called "Pacific Anti-Communist Military Group" that includes Japan, South Korea, Thailand, the Philippines, and Taiwan's Jiang Bandit. The spearhead is first directed at the People's Republic of China, but also at all others. Peace-loving Asian countries.

The Chinese people firmly cannot tolerate the hostility and aggression of the People's Republic of China by the US ruling group. As the People's Republic of China's international status and prestige have increased, American militants and politicians of the "China Aid Group" have become even more angry. These arrogances, after obliterating the People's Republic of my country's status as a major power and preventing our country from participating in a conspiracy to resolve international issues, refused to accept the lesson. Instead, they further colluded with the remnant Taiwanese Chiang Kai-shek gang and prepared for new military adventures to create tension in Asia. situation. However, adventurers in Washington are of course very clear that the Chinese people dare to accept any arrogant provocations. Sixty million Chinese people must liberate Taiwan. Taiwan is China's territory, and the liberation of Taiwan is China's own business. The US ruling group forcibly occupy Taiwan, it will inevitably get the inevitable fate of all aggressors.

The aggressive policy pursued by the United States in Asia is obviously part of its conspiracy plan to dominate the world and provoke a new world war.

In the past few years, the United States has tried its best to create divisions and confrontations in Europe, revive the German militarist forces, and provoke new wars. For this purpose, the United States obstructed the settlement of the German and Austrian issues, prevented Western European countries from considering the Soviet Union's proposal to establish a European collective security system, clung to the "European Defense Group" plan, and forced France and other countries to hand in their troops. Go into the hands of West German militarism. Recently, the United States has openly threatened France that if France does not ratify the "European Defense Group" treaty by mid-August, the United States will separately arm West Germany and return West Germany's "sovereignty." Britain, which recently claimed to advocate peaceful coexistence, also sang a tune with the United States.

In order to carry out its expansion plan, the United States does not take the sovereignty of any country in its eyes at all, and unscrupulously interferes in the internal affairs of other countries. The armed aggression and brutality of the United States to subvert the democratic government of Guatemala has thoroughly exposed that the American colonialists have become the most dangerous threat to the independence, sovereignty, peace and security of all countries.

The U.S. ruling group has established military bases everywhere, infringing on the territorial sovereignty of various countries and threatening the security of all countries. The United States has established hundreds of military bases in more than 60 countries, and is continuing to expand this global network of military bases to strengthen its control and occupation of all countries. At the same time, the United States has tried its best to prevent years of discussions on arms reduction and the prohibition of weapons of mass destruction from reaching an agreement, and continues to expand its armaments frantically, especially focusing on the atomic weapons race, holding a series of hydrogen bomb tests, and clamoring for the so-called "mass revenge" The "new look" strategy is a war intimidation to the people of the world.

All these facts show that they were met again at the Geneva Conference.

The once failed American militant group is still stepping up its aggressive and war policies, obstructing the negotiated settlement of other international issues in Asia and the world, and seriously threatening international peace and security. The tasks facing the peace-loving countries and peoples of the world are still very arduous, and we cannot relax in the slightest. Because the task before us is still very huge. The most important task for our people at present is to liberate Taiwan and completely smash the American imperialists' conspiracy to invade and subvert our country.
