Description:

To Comrade Larbi Buhali and to all the comrades of the Central Committee of the Algerian Communist Party:

Permit me to express my profound gratitude for the message of congratulations of Comrade Larbi Buhali.

The Chinese people has obtained its liberation after a long period of aggression and oppression at the hands of imperialism. Consequently, it feels warm sympathy and resolute faith toward the struggles of all oppressed peoples for liberation. I am persuaded that the Algerian people, under the direction of the Algerian Communist Party and with the aid of the international camp of peace and democracy, will succeed in overthrowing the domination of imperialism.

Long live the victory of the struggle of the Algerian people for liberation!

The President of the Central Committee of the Chinese Communist Party

MAO TSE-TUNG
