

Central Committee's Comments on the Directive from the North China Bureau regarding the Correct Conclusion of the Three-Anti Campaign (May 9, 1952)

This document is very good. Please distribute it to all central bureaus and sub-bureaus and forward it to provincial, municipal, and district party committees for implementation.

Central Committee

Note:

This refers to the directive issued by the North China Bureau of the CCP on May 7, 1952, regarding the correct conclusion of the Three-Anti Campaign, which was reported to the central authorities. The directive stated that the Three-Anti Campaign had been ongoing for nearly five months and was currently in its concluding phase. However, to thoroughly complete the tasks of the Three-Anti Campaign, much work still needed to be done. It provided several suggestions regarding the handling of issues related to corrupt elements.
