Telegram requesting provinces and cities to formulate outlines for five-year local economic plans

Date: November 10, 1954

Author: Mao Zedong

One

Central:

There is an urgent need for regional plans for each province and city. We have drafted a telegram of instructions on behalf of the Central Committee. If you agree, please send it as soon as possible.

Two

Party groups of all provincial and municipal Party committees, and all ministries and commissions under the State Council:

The Central Committee has sent you the "Draft of the First Five-Year Plan for the Development of the National Economy of the People's Republic of China (Draft)". In addition to asking you to submit your opinions to the Central Committee before the end of November, you are also asked to convene planning work meetings in your regions and, based on the spirit and main indicators of the draft and in combination with local characteristics and specific circumstances, determine the provincial and municipal committees The five-year plan outline for the municipal local economy was submitted to the central government on December 10. Please note the following points when compiling this outline:

(1) The scope of the plan indicators includes: industrial production plans (including local state-owned, cooperative, public-private joint ventures and private enterprises), handicraft production plans, agricultural production plans, forestry production plans, local transportation plans, domestic trade plans (various economic types), capital construction plans, labor plans, cultural, educational and health plans, and local fiscal plans. In the above plan, provincial party committees are requested to pay special attention to plans to develop agricultural production in their respective provinces.

(2) When preparing the above plan, the provincial indicators of the draft five-year plan issued by the National Planning Commission in early November may be referenced. All forms used should be filled out according to the format published by the State Planning Commission at the end of 1953. One form should be submitted to the Central Committee and five to the State Planning Commission. For specific issues in the preparation process, please contact the State Planning Commission directly.

(3) If provinces and cities have prepared draft outlines of the five-year plans, please review and revise them again and report to the Central Committee.

November 10, 1954