Liu Shaoqi: We are almost victorious. Now that people who were not revolutionary or even counter-revolutionary in the past are here, we should not hate them, but unite with them and achieve leadership over them in the form of a united front; the united front is the party's general line and general policy and must be implemented. Without execution, victory cannot be consolidated. This time the united front work is focused on us. On the one hand, we must oppose capitulationism, and at the same time, we must oppose "Left" closed-doorism and correctly implement the proletarian Marxist-Leninist mass line.
